

The 23rd BCLF Meeting will be held in
Bosnia and Herzegovina

Sarajevo

Sarajevo is the capital and largest city of Bosnia Herzegovina. The city is famous for its traditional, cultural, and religious diversity, with adherents of Islam, Orthodoxy, Catholicism and Judaism, coexisting there for centuries. Due to this long and rich history of religious and cultural variety, Sarajevo was sometimes called the "Jerusalem of Europe".

Sarajevo is the leading political, social and cultural center of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and its region-wide influence in politics, education, entertainment, media, fashion, science and the art constitute to its status as Bosnia Herzegovina's biggest and most important economic center.

In 1885, Sarajevo was the first city in Europe and the second city in the World to have full-time electric tram network running through the city. In 1914, it was the site of the assassination of the Archduke of Austria-Hungary which sparked World War I. Seventy years later, it hosted the 1984 Winter Olympics.

Nowadays, Sarajevo is the modern metropolis, provides an ideal opportunity short break between, tourism, activities and rich quality of scientific and social events.
